Crimes indicted for (examples):

All crimes charged in this case were allegedly committed in the time period from July to November 1995.

Genocide

- With intent to destroy a part of the Bosnian Muslim people as a national, ethnical, or religious group, Vujadin Popović, Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić, Ljubomir Borovčanin and Vinko Pandurević killed members of the group by planned and opportunistic summary executions.
- With the same intent, they caused serious bodily or mental harm to both female and male members of the Bosnian Muslim populations of Srebrenica and Žepa, including the separation of able bodied men from their families and the forced movement of the population from their homes to areas outside the Republika Srpska.

Conspiracy to commit genocide

- Vujadin Popović, Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić and Vinko Pandurević entered an agreement with several others, including Ratko Mladić, I Milenko Živanović and Radislav Krstić with the intent to kill the Muslim men of Srebrenica and to cause serious bodily or mental harm to the Muslims of Srebrenica, and in furtherance of the intent to destroy, in part, a national, ethnical, racial, or religious group, as such.

Extermination (crimes against humanity), murder (crimes against humanity, violations of the laws or customs of war)

- Vujadin Popović, Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić, Ljubomir Borovčanin and Vinko Pandurević are alleged to have committed the crime of extermination through the large-scale systematic murder of Muslim men from Srebrenica including amongst others, 150 Bosnian Muslim men at Cerska Valley, over 130 Bosnian Muslim men in Nova Kasaba, over 1,000 Bosnian Muslim men at Kravica Warehouse and the Sandići meadow, approximately 500 Bosnian Muslim men held in the school in Ročevići near Zvornik, approximately 1,000 Bosnian Muslim men at Orahovac (near Lažete), a number of Bosnian Muslim males detained at the Petkovci School, approximately 1,000 Bosnian Muslim men at the "Dam" near Petkovci, 1,200 Bosnian Muslim males detained at the Kula School near Pilica, about 500 Bosnian Muslim males near Kozluk, approximately 500 men inside Pilica Cultural Centre. Many of these bodies were buried in mass graves and later reburied in other locations.

- During and after the campaign of forcible transfer and organised executions, the Bosnian Serb Army and police forces took part in opportunistic killings of captured Bosnian Muslim men from the Srebrenica enclave.
- Vujadin Popović, Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić, Ljubomir Borovčanin and Vinko Pandurević committed the crime of murder by their participation in this campaign. Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero committed the crime of murder by their participation in opportunistic killings of captured Bosnian Muslim men.

Persecutions on political, racial or religious grounds (crimes against humanity)

- Vujadin Popović, Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić, Ljubomir Borovčanin and Vinko Pandurević committed the crime of persecutions by and through the following means: the murder and inhumane treatment of thousands of Bosnian Muslim civilians, including murder and severe beatings at Potočari and in detention facilities in Bratunac and Zvornik; the terrorising of Bosnian Muslim civilians in Srebrenica and at Potočari; the destruction of personal property and effects belonging to the Bosnian Muslims; and the forcible transfer of Bosnian Muslims from Srebrenica and Žepa by the forced bussing of the women and children to Bosnian Muslim-controlled territory and the forced bussing of the men, up to the Zvornik area, where they were ultimately executed.
- Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero committed the crime of persecutions by and through the following means: the opportunistic killings of captured Bosnian Muslim men; the cruel and inhumane treatment of Bosnian Muslim civilians, including murder and severe beatings at Potočari and in detention facilities in Bratunac and Zvornik; the terrorising of Bosnian Muslim civilians in Srebrenica and at Potočari; the destruction of personal property and effects belonging to the Bosnian Muslims; and the forcible transfer of Bosnian Muslims from Srebrenica and Žepa.

Forcible transfer (crimes against humanity)

- In order to force the Muslim populations of Srebrenica and Žepa to leave the area, all the accused are alleged to have carried out several actions, including: making life unbearable for the inhabitants of the enclave by shelling civilian targets in Srebrenica and Žepa and controlling the movement of people out of the enclaves; by defeating the Muslim forces and disabling the local UN forces militarily; and by preventing and controlling outside international protection of the enclaves, including air strikes and international monitoring.

Deportation (crimes against humanity)

- All the accused committed the crime of deportation through the forced movement of Bosnian Muslim men from Žepa, across the Drina River to Serbia and by making life unbearable in the enclave through means mentioned above.

INDICTMENT AND CHARGES

The initial indictment against Vujadin Popović was confirmed on 26 March 2002 (case number IT-02-57). He was charged with six counts of genocide or, alternatively, complicity to commit genocide, extermination, murder, persecutions and forcible transfer in the area of Srebrenica between 11 July and 1 November 1995. His initial appearance took place on 18 April 2005, when he entered a plea of not guilty to all counts.

The initial indictment against Ljubiša Beara was confirmed on 26 March 2002 (case number IT-02-58). His initial appearance took place on 12 October 2004 and a further initial appearance was held on 9 November 2004. An additional initial appearance took place on 11 November 2004, when he entered a plea of not guilty to all counts. On 26 November 2004, the Prosecutor filed an amended indictment, which was confirmed, with one exception, by Judge Bonomy on 24 March 2005. Amendments to the indictment included deletion of the charge of complicity to commit genocide, addition of the charge of conspiracy to commit genocide, the deletion of certain factual allegations, clarification of the elements of counts 2 (extermination) and 6 (forcible transfer) and the correction of one factual error. The Prosecutor filed the revised amended indictment on 30 March 2005. On 5 April 2005, Ljubiša Beara entered a plea of not guilty to the new charges in the amended indictment.

The initial indictment against Drago Nikolić was filed on 6 September 2002 (case number IT-02-63). He was charged with five counts of genocide or, alternatively, complicity to commit genocide, extermination, murder and persecutions in the area of Srebrenica between 11 July and 1 November 1995. His initial appearance took place on 23 March 2005. A further initial appearance was held on 20 April 2005, when he entered a plea of not guilty to all counts.

The initial indictment against Ljubomir Borovčanin was filed on 6 September 2002 (IT-02-64). He was charged with six counts of genocide or, alternatively, complicity to commit genocide, extermination, murder, persecutions and forcible transfer in the area of Srebrenica between 11 July and 1 November 1995. His initial appearance took place on 7 April 2005. A further initial appearance was held on 5 May 2005, when he entered a plea of not guilty to all counts.

The initial indictment against Zdravko Tolimir, Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero was confirmed on 10 February 2005 (case number IT-04-80) and made public on 25 February 2005. The accused were charged with five counts of murder, persecutions and inhumane acts (forcible transfer) and deportation. The initial appearance of Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero took place on 2 March 2005, when Milan Gvero entered a plea of not guilty to all counts. A further initial appearance was held on 31 March 2005 and an additional initial appearance held on 15 April 2005, when Radivoje Miletić entered a plea of not guilty to all counts.

Vinko Pandurević was initially charged with eight counts of genocide or, alternatively, complicity to commit genocide, extermination, murder, persecutions, deportation and inhumane acts in the area of Srebrenica between 11 July and 1 November 1995 (see Prosecutor v. Radislav Krstić, Vidoje Blagojević and Vinko Pandurević, case number IT-98-33). On 10 February 2005, the Prosecutor filed a motion to amend the indictment to include Milorad Trbić, which was confirmed on 24 March 2005 (case number IT-05-86). The initial appearance of Vinko Pandurević took place on 31 March 2005. A further initial appearance was held on 3 May 2005, when he entered a plea of not guilty to all counts.

On 10 June 2005, the Prosecution filed a motion seeking to join the six cases against the nine accused into a single case. The motion was granted on 21 September 2005.

On 31 October 2005, the Trial Chamber granted the motion to file a consolidated amended indictment. That indictment was filed by the Prosecution on 11 November 2005.

Following a number of motions alleging defects in the form of the consolidated amended indictment, on 31 May 2006, the Trial Chamber ordered the Prosecution to file an amended indictment implementing a number of changes. The second consolidated amended indictment was filed on 14 June 2006.

On 26 June 2006, the Trial Chamber ordered that the case of Milorad Trbić be severed from the case IT-05-88, and the Prosecution was ordered to file two new versions of the second consolidated amended indictment, one redacting all charges against Milorad Trbić and the other against Milorad Trbić only (case number IT-05-88/1). The Prosecution filed the indictment against Milorad Trbić on 18 August 2006.

On 13 July 2006 the Trial Chamber issued an oral order to remove charges against Zdravko Tolimir from the indictment. The Prosecution filed the revised second consolidated amended indictment on 4 August 2006, which no longer included charges against Milorad Trbić or Zdravko Tolimir. Subsequently, on 15 August 2006, the Trial Chamber officially severed Zdravko Tolimir from the case IT-05-88 and ordered a new indictment against him to be filed. The case against Zdravko Tolimir was assigned the new case number IT-05-88/2 and on 28 August 2006 the Prosecution filed the operative indictment against him only.

The operative indictment alleges that, on 8 March 1995 President of Republika Srpska Radovan Karadžić set out in Directive 7 the order to remove the Muslim population from the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves. This Directive ordered: "complete the physical separation of the Srebrenica and Žepa enclaves as soon as possible, preventing even communication between individuals between the two enclaves. By planned and well-thought-out combat operations, create an unbearable situation of total insecurity, with no hope of further survival or life for the inhabitants of Srebrenica or Žepa."

On 11 and 12 July 1995 the Srebrenica enclave was taken over by the Bosnian Serb Army (VRS) and the Ministry of Interior (MUP) troops and the plan to remove the Muslim population from Srebrenica was implemented, along with the plan to murder all the able-bodied men of Srebrenica.

The indictment alleges that, on 10 and 11 July 1995, thousands of Bosnian Muslims from the enclave, including women, children, and some men, fled to the UN Compound in Potočari, near Srebrenica, where they sought the protection of the UN Dutch Battalion. At the same time, approximately 15,000 Bosnian Muslim men from the enclave, with some women and children, gathered at the villages of Šusnjari and Jaglići and fled on 11 July in a huge column through the woods towards the city of Tuzla. Approximately one third of this group consisted of armed Bosnian Muslim military personnel. The rest were civilians and unarmed military personnel.

The indictment states that, in the evening hours of 11 July and morning of 12 July 1995, the plan to forcibly transport the Muslim population from Potočari was developed. Ratko Mladić, Commander of the Main Staff of the VRS, and members of his staff developed a plan to murder the hundreds of able-bodied men identified from the crowd of Muslims in Potočari. Ljubiša Beara, Chief of the Main Staff Security Organ, was in charge of organising, co-ordinating and facilitating the detention, transportation, summary execution and burial of the Muslim victims. Ljubiša Beara was supervised in this task by Zdravko Tolimir, Assistant Commander for Security and Intelligence of the Main Staff. Ljubiša Beara was assisted in these tasks by the respective Corps and Brigade security officers involved in these events, namely, Vujadin Popović, Drina Corps, Chief of Security; Momir Nikolić, Bratunac Brigade Chief of Security and Drago Nikolić, Zvornik Brigade Chief of Security. The above-named security officers relied upon commanders Ratko Mladić, Radislav Krstić, Vinko Pandurević, Ljubomir Borovčanin, Vidoje Blagojević and others, for the men, materials, directions and orders to carry out the murder operation. Radivoje Miletić was standing in for the Chief of Staff of the Main Staff of the VRS and acted as principal adviser to Ratko Mladić, the primary facilitator through which his intent, orders and directives were organised and processed for execution by the Staff and subordinate units. Milan Gvero was one of seven Assistant Commanders who reported directly to the Commander of the Main Staff, Ratko Mladić.

In order to force the Muslim populations of Srebrenica and Žepa to leave the area, the Bosnian Serb Army made life unbearable for the inhabitants of the enclave, militarily defeated the Muslim forces and disabled the local UN forces, prevented and controlled outside international protection of the enclaves, including air strikes and international monitoring, and controlled the movement of people out of the enclaves.

The indictment further alleges that the plan to murder the able-bodied men of Srebrenica began on the afternoon of 12 July with the forcible separation of the able-bodied men in Potočari from their families. From the afternoon of 12 July through the entire day of 13 July, over 1,000 able-bodied Muslim men were separated from their friends and families and transported to Bratunac and held temporarily in buildings and vehicles through 14 and 15 July.

It is alleged that on the morning of 13 July and continuing all that day, over 6,000 able-bodied Muslim men surrendered to or were captured by Bosnian Serb forces stationed along the road between Bratunac, Konjević Polje and Milići. The majority of those prisoners were transported to Bratunac or Kravica where they were temporarily detained in buildings and vehicles, along with the Muslim men who had been separated in Potočari. The large-scale systematic murder of Muslim men from Srebrenica began on the morning of 13 July at approximately 11 a.m. and continued through July 1995.

The indictment states that by 1 November 1995, the entire Muslim population had been either removed or had fled from Srebrenica and Žepa and over 7,000 Muslim men and boys from Srebrenica had been murdered by VRS and MUP forces.

From about 1 August 1995 through about 1 November 1995, Bosnian Serb Army and MUP personnel including Vujadin Popović, Drago Nikolić and Vinko Pandurević participated in an organised and comprehensive effort to conceal the killings and executions by reburial of bodies exhumed from initial mass graves to secondary graves.

For these crimes, the accused are charged as follows:

Ljubiša Beara, Vujadin Popović and Drago Nikolić are charged on the basis on their individual criminal responsibility (Article 7(1) of the Statute) with:

- Genocide (Article 4)
- Conspiracy to commit genocide (Article 4)
- Extermination, murder, persecutions, forcible transfer and deportation (crimes against humanity, Article 5)
- Murder (violations of the laws or customs of war, Article 3)

Vinko Pandurević and Ljubomir Borovčanin are charged on the basis of their individual criminal responsibility (Article 7(1) of the Statute) and on the basis of their superior criminal responsibility (Article 7(3) of the Statute) with:

- Genocide (Article 4)
- Conspiracy to commit genocide (Article 4)
- Extermination, murder, persecutions, forcible transfer and deportation (crimes against humanity, Article 5)
- Murder (violations of the laws or customs of war, Article 3)

Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero are charged on the basis on their individual criminal responsibility (Article 7(1) of the Statute) with:

- Murder, persecutions, forcible transfer and deportation (crimes against humanity, Article 5)
- Murder (violations of the laws or customs of war, Article 3)

PRE-TRIAL

On 19 July 2005, Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero were granted provisional release and they were released on 22 May 2005. On 20 June 2006, the Trial Chamber ordered their return to the Detention Unit by 4 July 2006.

On 16 June 2006, the Prosecution filed a motion seeking to sever the case of Milorad Trbić from that of the other accused. The Trial Chamber granted the motion on 27 June 2006 and assigned case number IT-05-88/1 to the case Prosecutor v. Milorad Trbić.

On 15 August 2006, the Trial Chamber ordered that the accused Zdravko Tolimir be severed from this case. He was assigned the new case number IT-05-88/2.

THE TRIAL

The trial of Popović et al. commenced on 14 July 2006. On 13 July 2006, Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero were granted provisional release from 14 July until 14 August 2006.

On 7 December 2007, the Trial Chamber granted Radivoje Miletić provisional release from 15 December 2007 until 7 January 2008, and Milan Gvero provisional release from 16 December 2007 until 8 January 2008.

The Prosecution case closed on 7 February 2008.

On 22 May 2008, Radivoje Miletić and Ljubomir Borovčanin were granted provisional release from 26 May until 30 May 2008.

The Defence case commenced on 2 June 2008.

On 21 July 2008, the Trial Chamber granted the provisional release motions during the summer court recess and ordered that:

- Radivoje Miletić be provisionally released for a period of 7 days and return no later than 19 August 2008;
- Drago Nikolić be provisionally released from 1 August until 4 August 2008;
- Milan Gvero be provisionally released for a period of seven days;
- Vinko Pandurević be provisionally released for a period of three days.

On 10 December 2008, Radivoje Miletić and Milan Gvero were granted provisional release for a period of 7 days and ordered to return no later than 8 January 2009.

The Defence case closed on 12 March 2009.

RULE 98*bis* DECISION

After the conclusion of the presentation of Prosecution evidence, the Trial Chamber can rule on whether there is a case to answer. If the Chamber believes that the Prosecution has not presented sufficient evidence to prove certain charge(s), it can dismiss those charges and enter a judgement of acquittal before the beginning of the presentation of Defence evidence.

On 3 March 2008, the Trial Chamber in the Popović et al. case issued an oral decision pursuant to Rule 98*bis* and dismissed the motions for acquittal filed by the Defence of Ljubiša Beara, Drago Nikolić, Ljubomir Borovčanin, Radivoje Miletić, Milan Gvero and Vinko Pandurević.
